

HOW IT WORKS

Email catering@portlandwings.com with all inquiries and orders.

Please include a name, phone number, pickup date, your preferred pickup location, and an estimate of the number of people you're hoping to feed. If you have last-minute or day-of questions please call the location where you are scheduled to pick up your order.

We require 72 hours notice for catering requests.

This allows us time to adjust our ordering and schedule a suitable pickup time at the most convenient location. Our kitchens are often fully booked, so making inquiries as early as possible is strongly encouraged.

Our minimum for self-catering orders is $200.

Orders under that amount can be placed by calling us directly on the day you would like to pick up. We invoice for all catering orders, and require that it be paid at least 24 hours prior to your pickup time.

Pickup times are 11:30am - 5pm.

All three locations can accommodate catering requests 7 days a week, but weekend time slots are limited, and fill up quickly. We do not deliver catering orders except under very special circumstances, and generally charge a hefty fee to do so.

Please do not call with catering questions.

Our locations are more than happy to help you with questions about our normal menu, but all catering orders are handled through our main office.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING NOT LISTED HERE?

We can usually accommodate special requests for menu items not listed on our catering menu. Feel free to inquire and we'll let you know if we can make it work.

READY TO PLACE YOUR ORDER?

Check out www.portlandwings.com/catering and fill out the catering form to get started. Someone from the office will get back to you and confirm the order. You can also email catering@portlandwings.com
